

Adjective or Adverb

Put in the correct form – either adjective or adverb.

The test did not seem (difficult) _____.

She plays the guitar very (good) _____.

She is a (strong) _____ player, so she is (confident) _____ to win.

She smiled (happy) _____.

Because she had to wait, she became (impatient) _____.

Your friend looks (nice) _____.

This pen writes (beautiful) _____.

She feels (good) _____.

Does it taste (good) _____?

Your cooking smells (fantastic) _____.

She looked at him (angry) _____.

Though he worked (hard/hardly) _____ for the test, he wasn't (satisfied) _____.

It is getting (dark) _____.

That new film doesn't sound very (interesting) _____.

The plan looked (good) _____ at first sight.

Fiona finished her work (quick) _____.

It was so dark that we had to feel our way (careful) _____ along the wall.

Dinner smells (good) _____ tonight.

She is a (brilliant) _____ singer, so she sings (good) _____.

This milk tastes (sour) _____.

Your dog smells (careful) _____.

This towel feels (damp, feucht) _____.

They tried to be (helpful) _____.

Sharon's cough sounds (bad) _____.

Sarah tasted the soup (careful) _____.

He spoke to her (shy) _____.

She doesn't look (good) _____ today. Is she (ill) _____?

Are you (good) _____?

Adjective or Adverb

Put in the correct form – either adjective or adverb..

The test did not seem difficult.

She plays the guitar very well.

She is a strong player, so she is confident to win.

She smiled happily.

Because she had to wait, she became impatient.

Your friend looks nice.

This pen writes beautifully.

She feels good.

Does it taste good?

Your cooking smells fantastic.

She looked at him angrily.

Though he worked hard for the test, he wasn't satisfied.

It is getting dark.

That new film doesn't sound very interesting.

The plan looked good at first sight.

Fiona finished her work quickly.

It was so dark that we had to feel our way carefully along the wall.

Dinner smells good tonight.

She is a brilliant singer, so she sings well.

This milk tastes sour.

Your dog smells carefully.

This towel feels damp (feucht).

They tried to be helpful.

Sharon's cough sounds bad.

Sarah tasted the soup carefully.

He spoke to her shyly.

She doesn't look well today. Is she ill?

Are you well?