

Conditional Sentences

In this mixed exercise, you are asked to put the verbs into the correct tense, and incorporate any other elements in the brackets in your answer. Use a highlighter to indicate the key words.

1. If I (show) you the way, you can go by yourself.
2. I could save him if I (swim) across the river.
3. The dressmaker (sew) your dress for you if you had taken it to her.
4. He (not, sweep) the yard had you not insisted.
5. If she (not, spoil) your records, it will be a miracle.
6. If Queen Victoria (be) alive today, she would not have been amused.
7. They (not, win) that prize two years ago if you (not, help) them.
8. If one puts ice into warm water it (melt).
9. If he (shout) at you, (come) and fetch me.
10. They (can, have) more money if they had worked harder.
11. The horse (not, bite) Mrs Barley if she'd not hit it.
12. I shouldn't say that to him if he (be) angry.
13. He (bear) his illness better if he'd had more support from his family.
14. You (not, may, come) back in here unless you say you are sorry.
15. I (can, draw) more pictures if I'd had time.
16. (he, spread) the news round town last week, I (be) very angry.
17. If I take the plates off the table, (you, shake) the table cloth?
18. (wear) your blue shirt if your green one is dirty.
19. You (can, do) this if you try.
20. If they (sweep) the road last Wednesday, I (not, slide) on the wet leaves.
21. They (may, begin) yesterday morning if it had stayed fine.
22. They (may, begin) today if it stays fine.
23. If I (be) you, I'd take it back to the shop.
24. (he, not, can, ride) the horse if he'd tried?
25. I'm sure your plants would grow if you (give) them more water.
26. If you crossed a kangaroo with a sheep, (you, get) a woolly jumper?
27. If you (win) the pools, what would you do?
28. If I meet him in the street, he (always, take) his hat off me. (Habit)
29. (he, not, apologise) to me, I should never have spoken to him again.
30. If they (forbid) me to go, I should stay here.

Conditional Sentences

1. If I show you the way, you can go by yourself.
2. I could save him if I swam across the river.
3. The dressmaker would have sewn your dress for you if you had taken it to her.
4. He wouldn't have swept the yard had you not insisted.
5. If she doesn't spoil your records, it will be a miracle.
6. If Queen Victoria had been alive today, she would not have been amused.
7. They wouldn't have won that prize two years ago if you had not helped them.
8. If one puts ice into warm water it melts.
9. If he shouts at you, come and fetch me.
10. They could have had more money if they had worked harder.
11. The horse wouldn't have bitten Mrs Barley if she'd not hit it.
12. I shouldn't say that to him if he were angry.
13. He would have borne his illness better if he'd had more support from his family.
14. You may not come back in here unless you say you are sorry.
15. I could have drawn more pictures if I'd had time.

16. Had he spread the news round town last week, I would / should have been very angry.
17. If I take the plates off the table, will you shake the table cloth?
18. Wear your blue shirt if your green one is dirty.
19. You can do this if you try.
20. If they had swept the road last Wednesday, I wouldn't have slid on the wet leaves.
21. They might have begun yesterday morning if it had stayed fine.
22. They may begin today if it stays fine.
23. If I were you, I'd take it back to the shop.
24. Couldn't he have ridden the horse if he'd tried?
25. I'm sure your plants would grow if you gave them more water.
26. If you crossed a kangaroo with a sheep, would you get a woolly jumper?
27. If you won the pools, what would you do?
28. If I meet him in the street, he always takes his hat off me.
(Habit)
29. Had he not apologised to me, I should never have spoken to him again.
30. If they forbade me to go, I should stay here.