

C2 Unit 2, p. 32 ex. 1a

1. It's hard to say if that's right or wrong because the text doesn't say anything about it. But because she lives in Brixton, I think that it's right.
2. I think that's right because Mrs Middleton says: "I like it here. The streets are always full of young people." (31, ll. 49-50)
I think that's right because she asks young people to carry her bags.
3. I think that's wrong because Janet thinks she is nice. (31, l. 21)
She finds Mrs Middleton interesting and wants to listen to more of her stories. (32, ll. 2-4)
4. I think that's right because she stays in her old house.
5. It's hard to say but the neighbour didn't realise anything.
6. It's hard to say because the text only says that Janet and Dominic think she had an accident.
7. That's right because she didn't open the door.
8. That's wrong because he only wanted to fetch the police.
9. That's right because the neighbour broke it.

C2 Unit 2, p. 33 ex. 2a

1. Can you carry these bags for me, please?
2. Can you imagine that?
3. I've only seen those in history books.
4. Would you like a cup of tea? – Yes, please.
5. Wouldn't you like to leave this old house?
6. Who's interested in an old woman?
7. I don't think she is at home.
8. Do you suppose she has had an accident?
9. No, please don't.
10. Why don't you use the front door?
11. It's Dominic and Janet.

C2 Unit 2, p. 33 ex. 2b

1. Would you like to come, too?
2. Susan, it's Jenny and Ann.
3. Are you interested in the football match, too?
Would you like to go to the football match with me?
4. I've only seen this in my English book, C1.
5. Can you imagine that I've won a trip to the USA?
6. Why don't you use the underground or a bus?
7. Would you like some of my drink / a coke?