

SB C3 Unit 4, p. 57, ex. 8 “In English, please.”

1. Do you also like eating ice-cream?
2. Susi enjoys sitting in the sun and reading a book.
3. It seems that he likes building model planes.
He seems to like building model planes.
4. I hate walking in the rain.
5. I suppose the Meiers will spend their holidays in the mountains again.
6. After a short break they went on working.
7. I think he dislikes getting up early.
8. I'm sorry (afraid) I couldn't come to your party.
9. I thought they would keep on playing but they didn't.
10. I hope she kept your telephone number.

WB C3 Unit 4, p. 28, ex. 8

1. I like going to these concerts.
2. I hope you haven't forgotten your tickets.
3. It seems that all the tickets have been sold.
4. I suppose the car park near the stadium is full.
5. Really? I hate walking two kilometers to the car after the concert.
6. Do you think Bruce will go on playing till midnight again?
7. I'm sorry, I can only stay till 11 o'clock.

SB C3 Unit 4, p. 57, ex. 9 “Asking for more information”

1. When are you going to buy a new one?
2. How long have you been living here?
3. How much did it cost?
4. Have you got the exact address?
5. Why haven't you repaired it yet?
6. Oh, what was he doing?
7. What are you reading?