Horoscope

Here's a horoscope for a person born under the influence of Pisces:

The world is not aware of all of the skills you possess, so why not give them a sneak preview today? You can use your hidden talents to entertain, persuade and negotiate with people—whatever you need to accomplish. Too often you play it safe and go by the rules, but that could be a bit shortsighted today. Think big and have confidence in what you can do. Just because you aren't an expert in something doesn't mean that you aren't good at it.

Write your own horoscope for one of the star signs above (4-5 sentences). Then read it out to your classmates.
