

martina topley bird

need one

tell it face to face
you got you a race
ain't got no time to taste low stars in fire
if I went away
you could walk today
time walks a world away screw me, you try

you're gonna kill some you're gonna free some you're gonna lose someone you're gonna fake some you're gonna want some you're gonna need someone

what you're feedin' me
don't make a mark of me I don't bruise so easily
no scars inside
I tell it face to face
got no time to taste
my memory's your fate
no scars inside

send me alone
I'm solemn and sorry

I'm gonna need some
did you believe some you're gonna breathe some you're gonna free someone

Send me alone
Aahhh...

you got you a race
face to face
you got you a race
