

The Secret Garden* – Archibald Craven

“He lives in a great, big desolate old house in the country, and no one goes near him” (11)

“He’s a hunchback, and he’s horrid.” (11)

Mary’s uncle, “Mr Archibald Craven, who lived at Misselthwaite Manor” (11)

“He’s not going to trouble himself about [Mary], [...] He never troubles himself about no one.” (17)

“He’s got a crooked back” (17)

“He was a sour young man and got no good of all his money and big place till he was married” (17)

His wife’s death “made him queerer than ever” (18)

“He cares about nobody” (18)

“He won’t see people” (18)

“he shuts himself up in the West Wing” (18)

“Mr Craven had [one of the gardens] shut when his wife died so sudden. [...] It was her garden.” (37)