"Our Dickon, he said our cottage was good enough for a king to live in." (78)

"A boy was sitting under a tree, with his back against it, playing on a rough wooden pipe. He was a funny looking boy about twelve. He looked very clean and his nose turned up and his cheeks were as red as poppies" (109)

"He had a wide, red, curving mouth and his smile spread all over his face." (110)

"curly, rust-coloured head" (110)

"he was only a common moor boy, in patched clothes and with a funny face and a rough, rusty-red head. As she came closer to him she noticed that there was a clean fresh scent of heather and grass and leaves about him, almost as if he were made of them." (111)
