

The Secret Garden – Mrs Medlock

“She was a stout woman, with very red cheeks and sharp black eyes” (13)

“it was very evident Mrs Medlock did not think much of [Mary]” (13)

“common, highly coloured face” (14)

“She was the kind of woman who would ‘stand no nonsense from young ones’” (14)

“She had a comfortable, well-paid place as house-keeper at Misselthwaite Manor” (15)

“she was a talkative woman” (17)
