

Death of a Salesman – Linda Loman

- “most often jovial” (6)
cheerful, carefree
- “iron repression of her exceptions to Willy’s behaviour” (6)
- “she more than loves him, she admires him, as though his mercurial nature, his temper” (6)
pardoning
- “lacks the temperament” (6)
- “Did something happen, Willy?” (6)
worrying, tries to be helpful
- “There’s no reason why you can’t work in New York.” (7)
supportive
- “encouraged” (8)
- “with pity and resolve” (9)
- “with infinite patience” (9)
- Willy: “You’re my foundation and my support, Linda” (10)
- Willy: “You’re the best there is, Linda, you’re a pal” (26)