Frankenstein – Chapters 10-15

1. Whom does Frankenstein meet after he has ascended to the summit of Montavert?
He meets his creature.
2. How does Frankenstein react to this meeting?
He is full of rage and horror. He threatens to kill the creature.
3. What does the creature want of Frankenstein?
He wants Frankenstein to listen to the account of his life so far.
4. How does the creature feel when he first feels life?
He feels confused because of all of the new sensations.
5. What is the reaction of the villagers the creature encounters?
They shriek, and throw rocks and other things at him, and drive him away from the village.
6. Where does the creature take shelter?
He stays in a lean-to (a shed) attached to a cottage.
7. What observations does the creature make about the people in the cottage?
He sees that they care for each other, that the two younger people treat the older man with respect, and that they are often sad and hungry.
8. What does the creature learn to do, and how does he learn this?
He learns to speak, and then to read, by observing and listening to the cottagers. He found a portmanteau that has several books in it, and he reads them. He then reads the letters that are in the pocket of the coat he has taken from Victor Frankenstein.
9. What is the elder De Lacey's reaction when the creature enters the cottage and begins speaking with him?
The elder man is blind, and therefore cannot see how hideous the creature looks. He invites the creature in and agrees to listen to his story.
10. What is the reaction of the De Lacey family when they see the creature?
Agatha faints, Safie flees, and Felix hits him with a stick until he leaves the cottage.
