

Pygmalion* – Characterisation (Act II)

Look at the list of features below. Which of them would you apply to each of the five characters in Act II? (Certain features may apply to more than one character.)

audacious, frank, honest, morally upright, irritable, impetuous, aggressive, calm, tolerant, insulting, rude, tactless, courteous, bullying, selfish, understanding, ingratiating, ingenuous, self-confident, weak, brutal, critical, proud, hypocritical, discreet, capable of rhetoric, disrespectful of others, uncritical of oneself, a malicious tempter, an exploiter.

Higgins

Pickering

Eliza

Mrs Pearce

Doolittle

Now confirm your answers by finding quotations from the play which exemplify some of those features.