

[the media]

- newsagent's
 - to read
 - the print media
 - a daily newspaper
 - a national / local paper
 - tabloids
 - broadsheets
 - frontpage
 - an article
 - headline
 - sub-heading
 - news / special report
 - opinion
 - analysis
 - a magazine
 - a comic
- library
- book shop
 - a book
 - fiction
 - a short story
 - a novel
 - a play (tragedy, comedy)
 - poetry (a poem, a poet)
 - a fairy tale
 - a fable
 - a proverb:
Never judge a book by its cover!

leisure time (free time, spare time)
my favourite pastime

entertainment (n.)
to entertain (v.)
entertaining (adj.)
enjoyment (n.)
to enjoy (v.)
to give pleasure
informative
boring
wearisome

computer, laptop

hard disk (capacity)
monitor (screen, display)
keyboard
mouse, mouse mat
the Internet (the Net)
to look sth up on the Internet to buy sth over the Internet to have access to the Internet an Internet service provider to download software
to go/be online, to surf the net
to chat
to post sth on the internet multimedia

mobile phone

to text (to send an sms)
"Text me when you're on your way."

to listen to music, a radio play audio

a personal stereo, a stereo / hi-fi system a CD player
a cassette-recorder (a tape)
a microphone
loudspeaker, headphones
radio (station; AM FM)

music
genre (rock, pop)
artist
album
song
lyrics

↑
audio-visual

to watch television, a film, a DVD

a DVD player, a video recorder, a camcorder television ("telly", TV, a television set)
"What's on (television) tonight?"
a TV channel (cable / satellite / digital) a movie / sports channel to receive a channel
to switch / change channels
remote control
to broadcast, -cast, -cast a (news) programme
to watch / record a programme to appear in a television programme film (actor, actress, director)

serial
game show
talk show
documentary
soap opera
sitcom
serial
weather forecast
cartoon

a (news)presenter
a newsreader

to advertise sth
an advert
advertisement (also ad)
a commercial