

Prepositions after verbs

1. They accused him _____ having robbed some tourists.
2. All are agreed _____ this point.
3. We refused to agree _____ their demands.
4. She never agrees _____ me.
5. You must allow _____ his bad condition.
6. The costs of the excursion amount _____ 18£.
7. If you are in financial difficulties, you can apply _____ a scholarship.
8. That particular kind of music appeals _____ me very much.
9. You cannot apply _____ that rule in this case. It doesn't apply _____ here.
10. Many people applied _____ the job.
11. The leaflet explains how the system will apply _____ you.
12. My parents don't approve _____ my staying out too late at night.
13. Orell volunteers to attend _____ that matter.
14. He succeeded in bargaining _____ a lower price.
15. The Swiss are difficult to bargain _____
16. I am very much in sympathy _____ those revolutionary ideas.
17. They always beat her _____ cross country skiing.
18. I assume that we all believe _____ God.
19. You can also indirectly benefit _____ their success.
20. Don't blame us _____ the fraud.
21. Don't blame the fraud _____ us.
22. He constantly boasts _____ his physical strength.
23. Dan called _____ her at 8 o'clock and then they went _____ the cinema.
24. While I was ill, my classmates never called _____ me.
25. Do you think she still cares _____ him?
26. In the course of the last few hours the weather has changed _____ the worse.
27. It is difficult to change a cat _____ a crow.
28. We all hope that he will change _____ time.
29. The shower is not included in the price. We charge extra _____ it.
30. In court the man was charged _____ high treason.
31. The two never agreed _____ compete _____ each other.
32. The butcher and myself competed _____ the first prize.
33. Let's compete _____ a race now.

34. In that class the pupils always complain _____ having too much to do.
35. Most people complimented/congratulated her _____ her stubbornness.
36. I'm afraid I cannot concentrate _____ such a complicated riddle now.
37. The judge condemned him _____ five years in prison.
38. She eventually confessed _____ having stolen the jewellery.
39. We confine the theme of your essay _____ a characterisation of Linda.
40. That particular books consists _____ three parts only.
41. Your task consists _____ getting the injured person out of the water.
42. I find it difficult to consent _____ your wishes.
43. Couldn't you contribute just a little bit _____ our common enterprise?
44. Try to convince him _____ the truth of what you say.
45. That skating holiday cured them _____ their rheumatism.
46. It is extremely nerve racking to deal _____ those people.
47. Did you know that he deals _____ hats, and stockings, and army knives?
48. Hopefully they never declared war _____ one another.
49. It all depends _____ whether you prepare those passages thoroughly.
50. The poor people of that country are being deprived _____ the most fundamental human rights.
51. Jean devotes a lot of time _____ her hobbies.
52. Some of them are prepared to die _____ their convictions.
53. In hospital she then died _____ her serious injuries.
54. Nowadays many people die _____ a heart attack.
55. This tool differs _____ that one with regard to usefulness and price.
56. His parents discouraged him _____ starting an apprenticeship.
57. We never envied him _____ his money.
58. Those aircraft can be equipped _____ nuclear weapons.
59. She seems to have fallen in love _____ another man every second week.
60. Fish feed _____ birds if I am not mistaken.
61. He keeps fishing _____ compliments!
62. They cruelly forced him _____ drinking the poisonous liquid.
63. Over the last few years they've grown _____ strength and beauty.
64. Over the last few years they've grown _____ criminals.
65. Should we have mercy _____ those who cheat repeatedly?
66. I have a lot of sympathy _____ revolutionary ideas. (see 17 above)

67. Help yourself _____ some more salad.
68. She faintly hinted _____ a possible solution to the problem.
69. He impressed me very much _____ his technical knowledge.
70. The fire brigade failed to inform the public _____ the accident.
71. Never stop insisting _____ the fact that you are Swiss.
72. Their house was insured _____ fire but not _____ avalanches.
73. She says she intends _____ leave this country soon.
74. Beware of interfering _____ him!
75. He suggested that I should invest _____ real estate rather than _____ art objects.
76. They easily succeeded _____ involving her _____ a terrible crime.
77. Can you keep all those secrets _____ yourself?
78. Please lead me out _____ the darkness _____ the light!
79. As a matter of fact she lives _____ those handicapped people.
80. He seems to be able _____ live _____ air and love.
81. Stan eventually managed _____ live up _____ his reputation as a gentleman.
82. It looked _____ me as if there had been a thunder storm immediately before my arrival.
83. Don't try to make her _____ someone she doesn't want _____ be.
84. Have you made up your mind _____ joining that interesting club?
85. What exactly do you mean _____ referring _____ that book passage?
86. Unfortunately, he was mistaken _____ a terrorist and killed _____ a policeman.
87. My parents rarely object _____ anything I do.
88. His nervousness prevented him _____ speaking fluently.
89. She cannot earn enough money to (be able to) provide _____ the children.
90. My relatives provided me _____ a lot of material about South Africa.
91. In the course _____ the last few years, Lucerne has reduced the number of hotel beds _____ approximately two fifths.
92. They reduced her salary _____ three thousand francs a month.
93. Whenever Ron feels insecure, he resorts _____ the use (or rather: abuse) of violence.
94. The use of the library is restricted _____ residents of this town.
95. This strange odour is caused _____ / results _____ the farmers' excessive manuring.

96. Such sales lead _____ / result _____ panic buying.
97. That song always reminds me _____ a romantic love affair.
98. We shall always remember her _____ her unfaltering cheerfulness.
99. Our teacher was robbed _____ his check book.
100. It is difficult to sacrifice a comfortable job _____ an adventurous one.
101. I promise to share both wonderful and evil hours _____ you.
102. Sometimes it is very helpful to speak _____ a friend.
103. As his class teacher I had to speak _____ his parents.
104. The doctor spoke _____ all kinds of contagious diseases.
105. Sheila plans _____ specialise _____ tourism.
106. Marc spends a lot of time (_____) reading narrative literature.
107. He's very keen _____ struggling _____ the opposition.
108. As soon as Queen Elisabeth II dies, Prince Charles will succeed _____ the throne.
109. In many countries, people suffer _____ their religious beliefs.
110. It seems that more people suffer _____ AIDS than _____ cancer.
111. I wanted to start an investigation, but he refused to supply me _____ the necessary data.
112. After having fought for three days and nights, the soldiers finally surrendered _____ the attackers who clearly outnumbered them.
113. We would never have suspected her _____ such a violent act.
114. Unscrupulous people have taken advantage _____ his relative lack of intelligence.
115. You should have taken at least some of us _____ your confidence.
116. I cannot think _____ a better solution than the one you've just proposed.
117. He constantly threatened us _____ that particular weapon.
118. Ann often succeeded _____ turning black _____ white.
119. She frequently warned me _____ believing everything he said.
120. Don't expect me _____ wait _____ you all the time!
121. They won a prize _____ swimming across the river.
122. The two work _____ the same project.

Prepositions after verbs

1. They accused him of having robbed some tourists.
2. All are agreed on this point.
3. We refused to agree to their demands.
(= to say yes to sth)
4. She never agrees with me.
5. You must allow for his bad condition.
(= to consider sth)
6. The costs of the excursion amount to 18£.
7. If you are in financial difficulties, you can apply for a scholarship.
8. That particular kind of music appeals to me very much.
9. You cannot apply – that rule in this case. It doesn't apply – here.
10. Many people applied for the job.
11. The leaflet explains how the system will apply to you.
12. My parents don't approve of my staying out too late at night.
13. Orell volunteers to attend to that matter.
(= to deal with sth)
14. He succeeded in bargaining for a lower price.
15. The Swiss are difficult to bargain with.
16. I am very much in sympathy with those revolutionary ideas.
17. They always beat her at cross country skiing.
18. I assume that we all believe in God.
19. You can also indirectly benefit from their success.
20. Don't blame us for the fraud.
21. Don't blame the fraud on us.
22. He constantly boasts about/of his physical strength.
(to brag about/of sth, to show off sth)
23. Dan called for her at 8 o'clock and then they went to the cinema.
(to collect sb in order to go somewhere)
24. While I was ill, my classmates never called on me.
(to pay a visit to sb)
25. Do you think she still cares for him?
26. In the course of the last few hours the weather has changed for the worse.
27. It is difficult to change a cat into a crow.
28. We all hope that he will change with time.

29. The shower is not included in the price. We charge extra for it.
30. In court the man was charged with high treason.
31. The two never agreed to compete against/with each other.
32. The butcher and myself competed for the first prize.
33. Let's compete in a race now.
34. In that class the pupils always complain of/about having too much to do.
35. Most people complimented/congratulated her on her stubbornness.
36. I'm afraid I cannot concentrate on such a complicated riddle now.
37. The judge condemned him to five years in prison.
38. She eventually confessed to having stolen the jewellery.
39. We confine the theme of your essay to a characterisation of Linda.
40. That particular books consists of three parts only.
(to consist of sth = several parts)
41. Your task consists in getting the injured person out of the water.
(to consist in sth = one main part)
42. I find it difficult to consent to your wishes.
43. Couldn't you contribute just a little bit to our common enterprise?
44. Try to convince him of the truth of what you say.
45. That skating holiday cured them of their rheumatism.
46. It is extremely nerve racking to deal with those people.
47. Did you know that he deals in hats, and stockings, and army knives?
(to buy and sell goods)
48. Hopefully they never declared war on one another.
49. It all depends on whether you prepare those passages thoroughly.
50. The poor people of that country are being deprived of the most fundamental human rights.
51. Jean devotes a lot of time to her hobbies.
52. Some of them are prepared to die for their convictions.
53. In hospital she then died from her serious injuries.
54. Nowadays many people die of a heart attack.
55. This tool differs from that one with regard to usefulness and price.
56. His parents discouraged him from starting an apprenticeship.
57. We never envied him – his money.
58. Those aircraft can be equipped with nuclear weapons.
59. She seems to have fallen in love with another man every second week.
60. Fish feed on birds if I am not mistaken.

61. He keeps fishing for compliments!
62. They cruelly forced him into drinking the poisonous liquid.
63. Over the last few years they've grown in strength and beauty.
64. Over the last few years they've grown into criminals.
65. Should we have mercy on those who cheat repeatedly?
66. I have a lot of sympathy towards revolutionary ideas. (see 17 above)
67. Help yourself to some more salad.
68. She faintly hinted at a possible solution to the problem.
69. He impressed me very much with his technical knowledge.
70. The fire brigade failed to inform the public about/of the accident.
71. Never stop insisting on the fact that you are Swiss.
72. Their house was insured against fire but not against avalanches.
73. She says she intends to leave this country soon.
74. Beware of interfering with him!
75. He suggested that I should invest in real estate rather than (in) art objects.
76. They easily succeeded in involving her in a terrible crime.
77. Can you keep all those secrets to yourself?
78. Please lead me out of the darkness into the light!
79. As a matter of fact she lives for those handicapped people.
80. He seems to be able to live on air and love.
81. Stan eventually managed to live up to his reputation as a gentleman.
82. It looked to me as if there had been a thunder storm immediately before my arrival.
83. Don't try to make her into someone she doesn't want to be.
84. Have you made up your mind about joining that interesting club?
85. What exactly do you mean by referring to that book passage?
86. Unfortunately, he was mistaken for a terrorist and killed by a policeman.
87. My parents rarely object to anything I do.
88. His nervousness prevented him from speaking fluently.
89. She cannot earn enough money to (be able to) provide for the children.
(= to give sb what they need to live)
90. My relatives provided me with a lot of material about South Africa.
91. In the course of the last few years, Lucerne has reduced the number of hotel beds by approximately two fifths.
92. They reduced her salary to three thousand francs a month.

93. Whenever Ron feels insecure, he resorts to the use (or rather: abuse) of violence.
94. The use of the library is restricted to residents of this town.
95. This strange odour is caused by / results from the farmers' excessive manuring.
96. Such sales lead to / result in panic buying.
97. That song always reminds me of a romantic love affair.
98. We shall always remember her for her unfaltering cheerfulness.
99. Our teacher was robbed of his check book.
100. It is difficult to sacrifice a comfortable job for/to an adventurous one.
101. I promise to share both wonderful and evil hours with you.
102. Sometimes it is very helpful to speak with a friend.
103. As his class teacher I had to speak to his parents.
104. The doctor spoke of all kinds of contagious diseases.
105. Sheila plans to specialise in tourism.
106. Marc spends a lot of time (on) reading narrative literature.
107. He's very keen on struggling against the opposition.
108. As soon as Queen Elisabeth II dies, Prince Charles will succeed to the throne.
109. In many countries, people suffer for their religious beliefs.
110. It seems that more people suffer from AIDS than from cancer.
111. I wanted to start an investigation, but he refused to supply me with the necessary data.
112. After having fought for three days and nights, the soldiers finally surrendered to the attackers who clearly outnumbered them.
113. We would never have suspected her of such a violent act.
114. Unscrupulous people have taken advantage of his relative lack of intelligence.
115. You should have taken at least some of us into your confidence.
116. I cannot think of a better solution than the one you've just proposed.
117. He constantly threatened us with that particular weapon.
118. Ann often succeeded in turning black into white.
119. She frequently warned me against believing everything he said.
120. Don't expect me to wait on you all the time!
(to wait on sb = to act as a servant to sb, especially by serving food to them)
121. They won a prize for swimming across the river.
122. The two work on the same project.